

9-7-2000

UD Music Professor to Bring Mozart Back to Vienna

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"UD Music Professor to Bring Mozart Back to Vienna" (2000). News Releases. 9346.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/9346

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

Sept. 7, 2000
Contact: Pamela Gregg
gregg@udayton.edu

NEWS RELEASE

UD MUSIC PROFESSOR TO BRING MOZART BACK TO VIENNA

DAYTON, Ohio — Richard Benedum, professor of music at the University of Dayton, has been selected by the National Endowment for the Humanities to direct a summer seminar for school teachers in Vienna, Austria, in 2001.

"Mozart: The Man, His Music and His Vienna," to explore the life of Mozart and the culture and history of his music, will be held June 11 to July 6.

Benedum's seminar will be one of approximately 35 such workshops sponsored by the NEH in 2001. He has directed six other NEH seminars in Vienna since 1990.

"I'm honored to be chosen again to lead an NEH seminar," Benedum said. "I enjoy talking about Mozart's music very much, and where better to do that than in Vienna?"

Only 15 teachers from across the United States will be selected to participate in the seminar. "The teachers who apply and are ultimately accepted to participate are among the best in America. It's a real privilege to spend time with them," Benedum said.

All teachers from public or private schools, grades kindergarten through 12, are invited to apply. Interested applicants can contact Benedum after Nov. 1, 2000, by writing to: Richard Benedum, NEH Seminar, c/o Music Department, University of Dayton, Dayton, OH 45469-0290.

-30-

For media interviews, call Richard Benedum at (937) 229-3236